

Code of Conduct

Standards of conduct binding on all staff and volunteers: respect for dignity, non-discrimination, confidentiality, and no gifts from beneficiaries.

1. Purpose

This code sets the standards of conduct binding on everyone acting on behalf of the foundation.

2. Core obligations

- treat beneficiaries with respect, without judgement and without conditions;
- do not use one's position for personal gain;
- do not accept gifts from beneficiaries, contractors or prospective contractors, other than token courtesies, which must be registered;
- do not disclose information about a beneficiary's approach;
- refrain from public statements on the foundation's behalf without authority.

3. Conflict of interest

Any potential conflict — family, financial or business ties with a contractor, a candidate or a beneficiary — is disclosed in writing before the decision it relates to is taken.

4. Working with beneficiaries

It is prohibited to offer a beneficiary private paid services, to establish out-of-hours relationships that create dependence, or to use their story without consent.

5. Breaches

Handled in the same way as reports under the PSEA policy.

Draft document, pending the foundation's signature. Before any public use it is replaced by the current signed version approved by the foundation.
