

Complaints and feedback mechanism

How to raise a complaint or give feedback, openly or anonymously, the response timeline, and the guarantee of no retaliation.

1. Purpose

A feedback and complaints mechanism is a mandatory element of accountability to the people the foundation serves.

2. Who may report

A beneficiary, a family member, a member of the community, a member of staff, a volunteer, a contractor, or any outside observer.

3. Channels

- the feedback form on the website, including anonymously;
- the foundation's email address;
- verbally, to a programme coordinator or to the social worker on site;
- through a trusted person on behalf of the affected individual.

4. Categories

Category	Example	Handled by
Quality of service	waiting time, attitude	head of stream
Staff conduct	rudeness, boundary breach	safeguarding focal point
PSEA or child protection	suspected abuse	safeguarding focal point
Fraud	a demand for payment in the foundation's name	finance director and the board

5. Timescales

Acknowledgement within 24 hours. A substantive response within 15 working days; for complex matters the period may be extended, with notice to the reporter.

6. Public reporting

The number of reports received and handled, by category, is published in the annual report, without details that could identify the reporter.

Draft document, pending the foundation's signature. Before any public use it is replaced by the current signed version approved by the foundation.
